WINE BY THE GLASS

Reginato Blanc de Blancs,
2006, Mendoza, Argentina BTG 9.00

Argentina is becoming a stealth player in the sparkling wine world, with crisp, clean and downright celebratory bubbliies such as the Reginato Blanc de Blancs. A perfect marriage between Chardonnay and Chenin Blanc grapes, this one is toast-worthy for any occasion.

Saint Cosme "Little James Basket White," 2008, Rhone Valley, France BTG 8.00

A why-didn't-we-think-of-that blend of Viognier and Sauvignon Blanc, where the floral, mango/papaya hedonism of the former, and the steely, citrus-infused acidity of the latter shine in spades.

Chateau D'oupia Minervois,
2007, Languedoc, France BTG 8.00

Gobs and gobs of ripe, blackberry and blueberry fruits here, with enough structure and acidity to keep it honest. Tastes like the sunbaked earth from the south of France from whence it sprang, with a kick of black pepper for added chutzpah. The perfect candidate for your house red.
